Trust Honor Love

In his forty years of experience as a salesman, Ronald R. Dobbs encountered two questions over and over on his quest for success: Why are some people successful when others aren't? What are the essential skills for success? In his own journey, Dobbs answered both questions for himself, and he now wants to share his experiences with readers. Dobbs shows how his own life story demonstrates the value of motivation and perseverance. He emphasizes the power of passion, commitment, attitude, and determination. Dobbs has written Dare to Dream: Creating Success for readers of all ages and backgrounds. A special section helps teens get an early start on their journey, but he also provides perspective and scope for those who believe life is over by the time they turn twenty. For others, Dobbs emphasizes that it is never too late to follow your dreams. Dobbs already shared the secrets of sales in Dare to Dream: Career Sales. In this companion book, he takes the focus off sales and onto basic success. Any fan of the first book will want this informative sequel. Anyone unfamiliar with the earlier work will still find this the perfect plan for success.

If I Loved You

Is there a war against your mind? Do you ever feel like giving up and quitting? When Monday morning comes, do you wish you could ignore the alarm clock and pull the covers over your head? One of the surest signs of spiritual attack against the mind is feeling you want to throw up your hands and surrender. As you read this book you will learn how to win the warfare against your mind. You will discover vital, Biblical truths such as: Why God gave you a prophetic imagination. How to defeat the fearful whispers in your ear. How to unravel Satan's best spiritual warfare strategy. How to stop invisible opponents. How to see all things possible. How to win imaginary conversations. How to walk where dreams live. You can stop the warfare against your mind. Are you ready to win? Are you ready to envision great things, dream great things and achieve great things with your God-given imagination? This book offers you more than information. It gives you proven and practical steps toward victory.

Dare to Win

The author believes that dreaming is not only healthy, but vital to a happy and fulfilling future. In an inspiring and instructional message, Littauer teaches readers how to balance their inner potential and offers six steps to living a life of vision and purpose, challenging readers to dare to dream, prepare the dream, wear the dream, repair the dream, and share the dream.

Win Win

Boundaries is a disturbing story about the blurred lines between love and betrayal, freedom and control, fantasy and treachery, good and evil, past and future. Diane Alders is a successful, workoholic sales executive in the medical field who has a void in her heart as a result of the tragic death of her husband seven years ago. Mickey Rollins is a genius and entrepreneur about to introduce a revolutionary new therapy that will 'repair' injured or impaired brains. Their sputtering romance hits full speed when Mickey invites Diane to accompany him on a lavish and bizarre vacation to the exotic South Seas intended to stretch their senses, fulfill wild dreams, and bring them closer together. Disaster strikes, and it is Diane who becomes Mickey's first human test subject. There's a catch...the healing process requires a surrogate, and Mickey chooses their mutual friend, lover and temptress—the beautiful Suki. The resurrection of Diane that transpires is not only a transfer of physical and cerebral attributes, but a blending of relationships, feelings, and emotions, drawing many into the fray, ending as shockingly as it begins.

Dare I Express It

What's Your Green Goldfish is based on the simple premise that employees are the key drivers of customer experience and that "Happy Employees Create Happy Customers." The book focuses on 15 different ways to drive employee engagement and reinforce a strong corporate culture. It's the second book in the goldfish trilogy. The first book was an Amazon Best Seller entitled, What's Your Purple Goldfish. Purple focused on customers, whereby Green focuses on employees. Both books are based on a revolutionary new approach called marketing g.l.u.e. (marketing by giving little unexpected extras).

The book is based on the findings of the Green Goldfish Project, an effort which crowd sourced 1,001 examples of signature added value for employees. Key themes emerged from the Project. The book is filled with over 200 examples. PRAISE FOR WHAT'S YOUR GREEN GOLDFISH "Stan is the sherpa that guides executives along the journey between the heart and mind of business stakeholders. Stakeholders aren't always customers though. At a time when company vision and culture matters more than ever, it takes inspired and engaged employees to bring them to life." - Brian Solis, author of What's the Future of Business #WTF, The End of Business as Usual and Engage "So often overlooked, and so very vital to building company value empowering employees to support each other and the brand. Stan Phelps 'gets' it and Green Goldfish will walk you step-by-step though achieving this critical goal." - Ted Rubin, author of Return on Relationship "Great customer centric organizations only exist because of engaged and empowered employees. The Green Goldfish is packed with awesome examples of what world class companies are doing today to inspire and reward their employees. If you see value in truly building an "A Team," Green Goldfish will be, without question, your single best reference." - Chris Zane, Founder and President of Zane's Cycles, author of Reinventing the Wheel, the Science of Creating Lifetime Customers "Stan Phelps takes customer service to a whole new level by focusing on EMPLOYEE service, and how to do well by your employees - so they take care of your customers. Packed with stories, insights and R.U.L.E.S. any company can follow, this book is a must-read for managers of companies of all shapes and sizes who know that employees don't leave jobs - they leave managers, especially when they don't feel your love and appreciation. Pick this up, and start engaging your team and making more GREEN - Phil Gerbyshak, author of The Naked Truth of Social Media "Our large-scale research shows unequivocally that engaged employees are more likely to work longer, try harder, make more suggestions for improvement, recruit others to join their company, and go out of their way to help customers. They even take less sick time. Companies can tap into the enormous value of engaged employees by following the 15 ideas that Stan lays out in this book." - Bruce Temkin, author of The Six Laws of Customer Experience "Too often, the actual employment experience delivered on the job does not measure up to the version sold to job candidates during the interview process. In What's Your Green Goldfish, Stan Phelps offers 15 ways to close the gap." - Steve Curtin, author of Delight Your Customers: 7 Simple Ways to Raise Your Customer Service from Ordinary to Extraordinary (AMACOM, June 2013) "In What's Your Green Goldfish, Stan Phelps brilliantly applies the idea of 'doing a little something extra' for employees. You know, those people that actually get the work done and keep customers happy. Read it, put some of the ideas to work, and soon you'll be reaping more 'green' from your customers." - Bob Thompson, Founder and CEO, CustomerThink Corp.

His life is in ruins; his innocence has been torn apart. Dare returns to his own world ashamed and alone. Desperate for a solution to end the war that has devastated his world and shattered his dreams, Dare is prepared to use all the power of the gods if it means he can avenge his lover's death. But he is not as alone as he might have thought. Dare soon finds out the war isn't as clear-cut as he had assumed, and he can't get vengeance if he can't tell who his enemies are. He learns to question everything he thought he knew. As his power grows, Dare leaves his childhood firmly behind, and discovers friendship and freedom can be found in the most unlikely places. Dare's travels take him through his own world and beyond, and his feelings for the mysterious man intent on saving his soul grow stronger with each sunrise. Dare realises love truly has no limits and no boundaries: not even the grave itself.

What's Your Green Goldfish?

Over the course of a forty-year career in the worlds of law, sports, business, and politics, Ron Shapiro has worked with and advised an incredible variety of people. What he's found is that the secret ingredient for getting into the winner's circle is simply the discipline of methodical preparation: that old-school, step-by-step way of having all your ducks in a row, whether you are an executive getting ready to do a deal or make a speech; a pitcher studying the traits of opposing hitters and keeping a meticulous notebook of their strengths and weaknesses; an international trade negotiator who knows all about the issues and the people on the other side before sitting down at the table; or a surgeon who rehearses like a classical musician. Deep down, you know you should do it. But how often do you wing it and fly by the seat of your pants because "Gosh, I don't have time . . . I've done this before . . . I know what I'm doing"? It is obvious that you have to get ready for whatever game you're playing, but all too frequently methodical preparation is the missing ingredient in today's world of instant analysis, easy access to information, and glibness that sounds good at first but is unconnected with the reality at hand. In Dare to Prepare, successful people such as wine guru Robert Parker, investment legend Bill Miller, pianist Leon Fleisher, Goldman Sachs partner Lisa Fontenelli, broadcaster Bob Costas, firefighter Ann Marie Tierney, New York Mets manager Willie Randolph, and many others share the way they apply discipline in preparing for career-changing games, deals, meetings, and interviews. Cal Ripken Jr. played thousands of games in the major leagues but prepared for each like it was his first. NPR host Liane Hansen has interviewed countless people but approaches each interview with the same meticulous research time and time again. Make sure there are no slips "twixt cup and lip" as you get ready for your next personal or professional challenge by daring to prepare.

21 ALDGATE by Patricia Friedberg is character-driven historical fiction set in pre-WWII London's Jewish East End and fashionable Chelsea, as well as in Germany and France . It is a fictionalized story of the relationship between the artist, Paul Maze, and his young married assistant, Clara, during and after the writing of his memoir of the Great War. A feature film based on the author's screenplay of 21 Aldgate, titled "The One I Love," is presently in development by Progress Pictures, Ltd., U.K. and The Future Film Group, U.K. The target audience includes WWI and WWII history buffs, Jewish history enthusiasts, Anglophiles across the globe, and readers who enjoy a great love story. Similar to The Postmistress in tenor, 21 ALDGATE is a story of love and war that bears witness to the prejudice, bias, aggression and propaganda that influenced British society during the buildup to WWII.

Dare to Prepare

In the salad of Michael Collins' otherwise perfect life there lurked one undoubted caterpillar, an immature determination to win a county junior hurling title with his beloved De Wets. Collins' playing history and his personal life contain much to vex the ordinary fan and strain his credulity, which is as it must be. And, like all the great matches "The Drinker with the Hurling Problem" is full of excitement, black humour and gritty reality. Collins' story will move the compassionate to tears, the just to indignation and the cruel to laughter. This book tells the story of what it takes to make an Irish male vow to change his life, to say nothing of his underpants. Every novelist writes one book too many and maybe that's what Paddy Coyne has just written; another variation on the Icarus theme: about wax melting, unscheduled descents and, of course, the inclination of God to look the other way when people are suffering most acutely.

Connor It's simple really, I like to win. At work, to win cases. At leisure, to win woman. Winning women rarely takes much to get what I'm after - sex and lots of it. They fall for me quicker than a whore's knickers. No joke, ask my mate George. I can't help it, it's my magnetism. I smile, they swoon, I shag them and move on. No relationship equals no complications. Well, not often. Then I met Miss West, and winning became even more important. Karina I thought my last partner was it for me. It turns out he had other ideas. The result is, I now find myself constantly thinking will I ever find my Mr Right and get to live out my dream. Then I meet Mr Dare, he's absolutely everything I'm not looking for and yet I am completely drawn to him. He is an egotistical, womanising, charmer and I should run for the hills. The trouble is I can't. I am fighting the attraction but losing to his ardent force. I wonder more and more at what Mr Dare means to me and what I might possibly mean to him.

The Aladdin Factor

A memoir from a Special Forces fighter about his experiences in the Rhodesian War and how combat has shaped his life. Andre Scheepers grew up on a farm in Rhodesia, learning about the bush from his African childhood friends, before joining the army. A quiet, introspective thinker, Andre started out as a trooper in the SAS before being commissioned into the Rhodesian Light Infantry Commandos, where he was engaged in fireforce combat operations. He then rejoined the SAS.

Wounded thirteen times, his operational record is exceptional, even by the tough standards that existed at the time. He emerged as the SAS officer par excellence—beloved by his men, displaying extraordinary calm, courage, and audacious cunning during a host of extremely dangerous operations. Here, Andre writes vividly about his experiences, his emotions, and his state of mind during the war, and reflects candidly on what he learned and how war has shaped his life since. In addition to Andre's personal story, this book reveals more about some of the other men who were distinguished operators in SAS operations during the Rhodesian War. "Andre was the best of the best and the bravest of the brave." —Capt. Darrell Watt, ex-SAS and subject of A Handful of Hard Men

Dare to Dream: Creating Success

This book is a compilation of my thoughts-- transformed into poems, quotes, and self notes. At the unseasoned age of 20, I can testify to life taking me through some expected changes and detours. There were many days that I couldn't speak, think, or even write clearly. Through silence, prayer, and this little writing outlet, I've learned so much. I've found inspiration in the most unexpected places. I've learned that it's okay to cry. It's okay to not know all the answers. It's okay to be you-- Unapologetically you. Sometimes, it's even okay to feel lost.. So long as you remember who you are. We're all destined for greatness and success. I pray this book opens minds, encourages smiles, and inspires creativity. Above all, I'm forever grateful to my Heavenly Father for his magnificent plan over my life.

There are more than 1,000 school and community college (K-14) districts in California. To build, repair, or equip their campuses, they must ask voters to approve a general obligation (GO) bond and raise their property taxes rates -- a big ask. While GO bonds have become a multi-billion-dollar market, there has to date been no "how to" guide for district administrators, elected officials, taxpayer organizations, and concerned citizens. There is now. With hard-earned wisdom and wry wit, Dale Scott, California's leading K-14 financial advisor, has written WIN WIN: An Insider's Guide to School Bonds to demystify the complex, often challenging process that goes on "underneath the hood" in developing, structuring, passing, and selling a GO bond. Drawing on three decades of work as an advisor to school districts and community college districts, investment banker on Wall Street, financial advisor, and campaign manager, Dale walks readers through each step of the process, answering the many questions he's been asked over the years. Hard-hitting, detailed, and humorous, WIN WIN explores and explains why some bond elections pass but others fail, how bond deals are put together, tips on selecting the right team of professionals, how to avoid recent scandals surrounding GO bonds, and how to tell if tax rate estimates are accurate or just wishful thinking. Scott's book is an upbeat demystification of the complex processes of California school bonds, showing that when executed correctly, the teamwork of passing a school bond can have a transformative effect on both local schools and people's sense of their role in their community.

I believe the big in you. This book challenges you to tap into the supernatural of what God has already done for you. God unmerited favor by grace through faith. Trust in the Lord, and he is that answer to every area of your life. "I have come that they may have life; and that they may have it more abundantly" (John 10:10, NKJV). When Jesus says yes, nobody can say no! "Is there anything too hard for the Lord?" (Genesis 18:14, NIV). If you could only envision what God has reserved for you, the places he is going to take you, the right people you're going to meet, and the favor of God has for every area of your life, Align yourself to set good breaks to follow: Reach beyond your circumstances Rise above the expectations of others Maximize your full potential Embrace God's opportunities Walk in divine health Maximize prosperity in every area of your life Overcoming fear with God's faithfulness It's going to be the surpassing greatness of God's favor. Know that God is not limited by your appearance or who is against you. When God gave your life, he put blessings on you that no one can take away. God has the final say, and he is faithful. You are your breakthrough. God has equipped you to be all that you can be. Believe all, and you win. Look beyond your past and look to what's ahead. Christ is in you. The hope of glory. You were made in his image. Jesus wants you to know who you are because you have what God is. It all belongs to God. You can have it too!
