Southern Africa's rocks span an enormous time period and the region boasts a wealth of mineral deposits. This handy pocket guide presents a selection of the most common, fascinating and important rock and mineral species to be found here. Each entry includes: □ full-colour photographs □ a concise description □ uses, both historic and current, and □ detailed information on where in the region species are found. The physical and diagnostic characteristics of each mineral are summarized in tinted panels, and handy icons show other important information at a glance. In addition, the rock section discusses how the three main rock types form. A comprehensive glossary explains difficult technical terms. Compact and easy-to-use, the Pocket Guide - Rocks & Minerals of Southern Africa will be invaluable both to amateur geologists and budding collectors.

This book is a unique and indispensable guide to the hidden treasures of 43 of South Africa's best and most accessible national parks, nature reserves and wilderness areas. Included are more than 900 photographs, 140 detailed park, locator, provincial and vegetation maps, and a 31-page photographic guide that aids identification of wildlife and vegetation. Organised by province, the conservation areas are comprehensively described, covering history, location, landscape, geology, vegetation and wildlife - most notably mammals, birds, reptiles, amphibians, fish and insects. Information panels list the highlights of each park or reserve, and provide key facts about wildlife, climate, facilities and activities, as well as critical warnings for visitors. Some 195 free checklists for the parks and reserves covered in the book can be downloaded at www.parksandreserves.co.za Chris and Mathilde Stuart, field ecologist and medical doctor respectively, work in the fields of biodiversity surveying, travel, photography and filming. They have written numerous books, including Field Guide to the Mammals of Southern Africa, Pocket Guide to Mammals of East Africa and Dangerous Creatures of Africa, all published by Random House Struik, as well as scientific papers and popular articles on a wide range of topics.

A revised edition of Africa North of the Limpopo: the Imperial Experience since 1800, North of the Limpopo does not end with the passing of the formal imperial era, but goes beyond this to take in the situation in independent Africa after the withdrawal of the colonial powers. Throughout the book the authors have striven to achieve a balance between European activity and African initiatives and responses in Africa. Part 1 of this book covers events in Africa to the end of the partitioning period, which almost coincides with the end of the nineteenth century. Part 2 deals with events in the twentieth century. Like the previous edition, this is a textbook for South African students, but contains little on South African history, as the title indicates.
