This book was previously published under the title 'Alithiea' A fast paced, UK based, Political Thriller that pits the residents of a rundown, British housing estate 'Riverside' against the full might of the British Government and its security forces. The Chinese Government, the CIA, and the secret world of Freemasonry, all conspire against what the British Prime Minister sees as the undeserving poor; the lazy workshy underclass, or simply as subversive terrorists. The story is set in the near future, a time when the United Kingdom has left the European Union and war has devastated the Middle East. Poverty has led to anarchy and an increasingly divided society. Since the secession from the EU, successive governments have wrestled with the UK's isolated and crumbling economy leading them to introduce increasingly draconian policies, and to make economic and political alliances with unlikely bedfellows. The people of Riverside have experienced firsthand the effects of austerity, and have watched as the worldwide movements for progressive change, from the Anonymous face mask wearers to the Occupy movements in Wall St and London, have been crushed with the free internet being shut down under the heel of the globalised 'Free Market' elites all under the banner of the so called, 'war against terror'. Now, it comes time for the Residents of the estate themselves to directly face the forces of oppression, and, as they do so, come face to face with the ultimate choice.

Duchess of War

#1 in a NEW EPIC FANTASY SERIES by 28-times New York Times and international best seller David Weber, set within his Bahzell Bahnakson/War God universe. A swordsman who has been robbed of his past must confront an evil wizard with a world at stake. Know thyself. Its always good to know who you are, but sometimes thats a little difficult. Kenhodan has no last name, because he has no past . . . or not one he remembers, anyway. What he does have are a lot of scars and a lot of skills some exhilarating and some terrifying and a purpose. Now if he only knew where he'd gotten them and what that purpose was . . . . Wencit of Rm, the most powerful wizard in the world, knows the answers to Kenhodan's questions, but he can't or won't share them with him. Except to inform him that he's a critical part of Wencit's millennium-long battle to protect Norfressa from conquest by dark sorcery. Bahzell Bahnakson, champion of Tomank, doesnt know those answers and the War God isn't sharing them with him. Except to inform Bahzell that the final confrontation with the Dark Lords of fallen Kontovar is about to begin, and that somehow Kenhodan is one of the keys to its final outcome. Wulfra of Torfo doesn't know those answers, either, but she does know Wencit of Rm is her implacable foe and that somehow Kenhodan is one of the weapons he intends to use against her . . . assuming she can't kill both of them first. But in the far northern port city of Belhadan, an eleven-year-old girl with a heart of harp music knows the answers to all of Kenhodan's questions. . . and dares not share them with anyone, even the ancient wild wizard who loves her more dearly than life itself. It's not easy to face the future when you can't even remember your own past, but if saving an entire world from evil sorcerers, demons, devils, and dark gods was easy, anyone could do it. ## An Exposition of the Old and New Testament

The Art of Speculation during Civil War - Sun Tzu Meets Jesse Livermore offers a compelling choice: remain asleep or wake up to the truth; accept whatever major media say or understand how the economy, government, and society are manipulated for the profit of a few and at the expense of the majority. Slavery is dependent upon the consent of the slave. Oppression, to succeed, requires the sanction of the oppressed. No regime, be it democratic, monarchic, socialist, communist, or fascist, can exist for long without the public's consent, irrespective of how that consent is manufactured. If consent is withdrawn, the regime falls. The Art of Speculation during Civil War aims to hasten the day when individuals, communities, countries, and the world withdraw consent from those who would manipulate them for the aggrandizement of their power. This book invites its readers to awaken to the truth and profit from the knowledge and freedom gained. The truth is a solid foundation for any economic activity. Anyone can profit from the truth and extraordinary profits are possible for those who understand why Sun Tzu meets Jesse Livermore.

Caden has a map to the last city on Earth, and the only place that might have a cure for both Viv's infection and the strange light on Thea's hands. As the trio embark on a journey through the barren wilderness, Thea and Caden discover, and try to fight, their mounting attraction to each other. Along the way they are joined by Rain, Naomi, and Enoch who explain that the light is not a curse, but a powerful gift meant to heal the polluted Earth and reconnect the remnants of humanity. When the group learns that Viv is the key to this planet-wide redemption, and that there are deadly shadows who will do anything to keep humans in the darkness forever, they each must make the difficult decision to help Viv fulfill her destiny and save the world. Grown men don't wear nappies and babies don't drive cars. In life it is important that we act our age. Spiritually, it works the same way. If we don't grow continually as a Christian, we build expectations based on other people's experiences instead of our own current position. Are you struggling to connect with God, or are you frustrated that your prayers are not being answered? The question is, how mature are you, spiritually speaking? Truth is, a parent relates differently to a baby than to a teenager. So too your Heavenly Father relates differently to you as a little child, a young man or as a father in the faith as highlighted in 1 John 2. Each growth phase poses a different degree of intimacy as well as a different level of responsibility in God's Kingdom. In this book you will learn how to relate to God as:* A little child receive revelation of God as a Father and understand adoption into His family.* A young man learn how to build strength and overcome the three enemies of your soul.* A father in the faith live in deep intimacy with the Father while raising sons of the next generations.It's time we grow up into full spiritual maturity. Creation depends on it!
